

Terms & Conditions

Terms and Conditions:

SIA is not responsible for children outside the hours of the any of our camp/events or workshops.

Children must adhere to SIA's rules & code of conduct at all times. SIA reserves the right to suspend any child that is disruptive to the camp due to misbehaviour or whose behaviour puts them or others at risk.

Breach of our Terms and Conditions will result in cancellation of orders. Participants/Parents/Guardians who sign or tick The SIA's application form and who makes payment, agrees to our terms & conditions via this website, and this action is taken as an agreement between The SIA and the participants/parents/guardians with the terms and conditions acting as a contract between both said parties.

SIA does not accept responsibility for the loss or damage to any property belonging to the participants at any of our camps/events or workshops.

Cancellation is required one week prior to the commencement of a camp/workshop or event, no refund of deposit or fee can be redeemed on or after that time.

Parents/Guardians must be contactable during the our hours of service. Places will be filled on a first come first served basis. SIA reserves the right to cancel part of/or the entire programme.

Photographs maybe taken for promotional or advertising purposes; if parent or guardian wishes for their child's photo not to be taken SIA will require written confirmation or you must comply with the relevant option on the website when booking our camp/events or workshops. Information of activities is given in good faith.

All arrangements and activities are subject to change depending on weather condition, programme schedule and other arrangements.

SIA reserve the right to cancel, amend or alter activities accordingly.

SIA does not cover the cost of fees to National Monuments on excursions and additional fees may apply to these day trips where we may take public bus (all private coaches are included in our fees).

If your child suffers from any illness or medical condition you must notify SIA. If your child has any specific special needs we will require the accompaniment of a guardian or special needs assistant (SNA).

SIA has permission to seek medical treatment in the event of an accident. If you require further information in relation to any of the above please contact us at info@sia.ie.

SIA will not be held liable or responsible for any natural /environmental disaster such as an earthquake, flood or pandemic outbreak and in any of these cases refunds will not be possible.

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic all participants/parents/guardians will not hold The SIA liable or responsible for any participant contracting the COVID-19 virus. All participants/parents/guardians are solely responsible for the health and care of their children in relation to COVID-19.

There is an obvious risk of your children contracting COVID-19 in the community and SIA will not be held responsible if children becomes infected. Participants/Parents/Guardians must take full responsibility for the risk their children pose while engaging in public and with other children at our camps, events or workshops.

All cancellations will be subject to a minimum administrative fee of €20 (non-transferable).

SIA is fully covered with Public Liability Insurance and any further questions should be directed to SIA by email.
